INVESTIGATION of the Central Intelligence Agency is demanded by the fuzzy-minded Sen. Fulbright. Maybe the CIA should be investigated, but who is going to investigate Fulbright? I reckon he must have just finished reading "The Ambassador."

U THANT, from his chair in United Nations, says the U.S. must invite all phases of the Communist regime in Viet Nam to sit down at the peace table, and that the U.S. must stop bombing North Viet Nam in the interests of peace. It would appear that U Thant's goal is, as usual, backing up the Communist enemies of the U.S.

THE RECORD BUDGET for the nation now before Congress proposes the biggest take of American tax money in history, and it is designed to carry on the Viet war plus the Great Society. Politics can certainly be costly, and the LBJ figures fail to tell the whole story.

A CHICAGO WOMAN who hasn't seen her husband for nine years, but whose children (under Aid to Dependent Children) range in age from 2 to 21 years, has been named Chicago representative on Sarge Shriver's council to war on poverty. I reckon she knows how to defeat poverty.
